Sun's Cotton Review.
New York, October 25.—From the Sun's report of Friday's market, Cotton futures opened two to three points lower on a further advance in the Liverpool market, but as that market promptly receded and the interior movement began to show up at very full figures, the selling movement began to ease, and values slowly but steadily gave way, and the close was barely steady, at the lowest figures of the day. Manipulations of the October corner caused this option to advance and the November option to develop some irregularity. Weather reports from the South were very good. Cotton on the spot was almost entirely neglected. Middling uplands 10½c, and gulf 10½c.

Everybody claims the best stock in Asheville. Call and see our "best," at Whitlock's.

Little Bella—Mr. Spire, do drink your tea. I am awful anxious to see you drink. Mr. Spire—What makes you anxious, dear? Little Bella—Oh, ma said you drank like a fish.

In order to reduce the stock in many lines, during the rest of this month, a large reduction will be made on many fine and common goods, varying from ten to twenty-five per cent. The lines of colored glass must be closed out, and is subject to twenty per cent. discount. Choice odd pieces have ten per cent. off. Special prices on all crockery and glassware at 57, 59 and 61, South Main street.

Araminta—You put your arm around my waist so gracefully, George—I have had lots of practice. I was a street-car conductor five years.

We make fine goods a special feature. When you want the best call at Whitlock's.

First officer—I captured a whisky still down here a few hours ago. Second officer—That so? Who was running it? First officer—A dead drunk.

Pants, several hundred of them, overcoats, men's, boys' and children's, stylish and cheap, at Whitlock's.
